

New Residential Electric Service

Building a home?
Here are the steps
to setting up
electric service.

Clark
Public
Utilities

Steps to new residential electric service

To Obtain new electric service, the financially responsible party will:

- Contact the Clark Public Utilities Construction Services Department at construction@clarkpud.com or 360-992-8558 to initiate a request for new electric service.
A site plan is required before the job can begin.
- Obtain electrical wiring permit.
Washington Department of Labor and Industries. 360-896-2300
City of Vancouver. 360-487-7802
- Call 811 for locates two business days prior to digging.
- Obtain new electric service design from Clark Public Utilities' design.
Discuss any changes with your Clark Public Utilities planner.
Prior approval of variances is required before connection.
- Install Clark Public utilities approved secondary cable and material.
Ask Clark's Residential Planner for utility standards.
- Call for appropriate electrical inspection.
- Notify Clark Public Utilities once trench is back filled.
Call 60-992-8839 with job number.

Commercial application require review by Clark Public Utilities engineering.

Fees & Charges

Un-Metered BDR Service

(For single family use only)

- $210 - first six months
- $160 - additional six months
- $160 - adjacent lot

Metered Temporary Services

(multi-family and commercial)

$160 + consumption

Residential Current Transformer (CT) Metering

For services greater than 400 amps, CT metering requires prior approval by Clark Public Utilities engineering. Contact us for pricing and other requirements.

System Development Charges

This charge covers costs incurred by the utility to increase capacity to the existing Clark Public Utilities electric distribution system.

- $118 — under 100 amps
- $236 — 100 amps
- $473 — 200 amps
- $709 — 300 amps
- $946 — 400 amps

Please note: Service panel changes and upgrades may also require payment of the system development fee.

If you have any questions, call 360-992-3000 and speak with a Clark Public Utilities customer service representative. You can call for information 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Learn more at clarkpublicutilities.com or 360-992-3000

