

We're Hiring

Senior Applications Analyst/Developer

We are looking for an experienced individual to join our growing and evolving development team. The ideal person will have the skillset required, a passion for coding, ability to take initiative, enjoys finding solutions to difficult problems, and will be able to hit the ground running.

WHAT YOU WOULD DO:

- Meet with end users to gather project requirements
- Collaborate with fellow employees in developing effective solutions
- Architect and develop applications utilizing the .NET framework
- Design and develop relational database systems
- Add features to existing software
- Debug, test and fix software bugs, even if they're not yours
- Able to work on projects, both independently and as a team
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Keep abreast of the latest technologies
- Write clean, readable, maintainable code and comments

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Strong object oriented design and development skills
- Strong web development skills, including experience with Single Page Application Frameworks like Angular, React, or Aurelia; experience using TypeScript is a plus
- Experience with .NET, C#, Web Services, and Entity Framework
- Understanding of web application security planning and configuration
- Experience with source control tools such as TFS
- Experience in managing workload under tight timelines with minimal supervision
- SharePoint development and/or administration is a plus
- B.S in Computer Science or related field

WE WANT TO WORK WITH YOU IF:

- You have a passion for better software design at all levels (not just coding)
- You have strong opinions on how things should be built, yet are flexible in achieving solutions
- You want to make an impact and not just be a cog in the development machine
- You are a smart, creative, action-oriented problem-solver

YOU WANT TO WORK WITH US BECAUSE:

- We support our developer's professional development. Opportunities are given and encouraged to attend developer workshops and conferences

- Central location in beautiful Downtown Vancouver that is easily accessible wither you choose to walk, run, bike, and drive or take the bus to work. Easy access to walking and running paths.
- We value hard work, but also equally value a solid work/life balance. We believe you should enjoy coming to work and offer a casual and fun environment with flexible hours
- We offer competitive salaries, company-paid medical and dental insurance, a 401K retirement plan, flexible work hours and a generous PTO/Vacation policy and more!
