

Clean Energy Credits for Washington Families

The Washington State Department of Commerce, in collaboration with Promise, is offering one-time grants through the Clean Energy Credits for Washington Families Program.

Act now! Credits are only available until Sept 15

These clean energy credits are funded by the Washington Climate Commitment Act (CCA)

Applying takes only 30 seconds. Really.

Promise.

The Clean Energy Credits for Washington Families Program is supported with funding from Washington's Climate Commitment Act. The CCA supports Washington's climate action efforts by putting cap-and-invest dollars to work reducing climate pollution, creating jobs, and improving public health. Information about the CCA is available at www.climate.wa.gov.

You may receive a text message from the Washington State Department of Commerce and Promise to apply

What is Promise?

Promise is a software company specializing in relief distribution and revenue recovery for government. Promise works with state and local governments to distribute funds to utility customers for aid on their utility bills.

Who is Eligible?

Low- and moderate-income electric utility customers in the state of Washington

To learn more about the program and apply, please visit:
<http://wacleanenergycredits.com>

Or call: 1-844-941-2939

The Clean Energy Credits for Washington Families Program will offer bill credits of $200 per household to eligible residential customers by September 15, 2024.

